

Knowledgebase > General Questions > I updated my radio and now the radio screen says Error

I updated my radio and now the radio screen says Error

Laura - 2020-11-03 - General Questions

After running a software update you may experience the display on your radio report Error. If this happens you should remove the power from your radio. Reapply the power after 30 seconds, the radio should now function as normal. The software on the radio will have updated successfully you can now carry on using the radio as you normally would.